The prostration, step by step

Every position in one prostration, from kneeling to standing, with the word noted at each movement.

This is the same sequence as the mindful prostration sheet, shown position by position. The sheet explains what the practice is for and how to note; this page is for checking the shape of a movement when the words are not enough.

The word under each drawing is the note said silently while the movement is made, once as it begins, once in the middle, once as it ends. Numbers follow the sequence from the first kneeling to standing up again.

Kneeling

A

toes tucked under

B

or sitting on the feet

Either position is correct. Choose the one your knees and ankles allow.

Going down

1

sitting

2

turning

3

raising

4

touching

5

turning

6

raising

7

touching

8

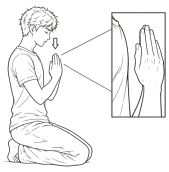

raising

9

touching

10

lowering

11

touching

12

bending

13

lowering

14

touching

15

covering

16

lowering

17

touching

18

covering

19

bending

20

touching

Coming up

21

raising

22

turning

23

raising

24

touching

25

turning

26

raising

27

touching

28

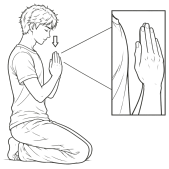

raising

29

touching

30

lowering

31

touching

Repeat 12 to 31 twice more, so there are three prostrations in all, then continue with 32.

Finishing

32

lowering

33

touching

34

covering

35

lowering

36

touching

37

covering

38

sitting

39

standing

These instructions follow the meditation manual of Yuttadhammo Bhikkhu. The technique is the style of insight practice as taught by Ajahn Tong Sirimangalo, in which experience is noted silently and in plain language as it occurs. The drawings on this page are by the team at sirimangalo.org and are used with their permission.